CONGRATS!

You have been granted an award for being a family member of one of the residents volunteering in the nursing home. This is how you stay connected with your loved ones, contributing to the wellbeing of other residents as well.

GREAT!
MOVE 4 SPACES FORWARD.

COMPENDIUM: P 2.3.6.

Detrimental cards

58

At lunch time Ms Rossi asked for help to go to the toilet. She was told either to wait or to do her business in her diaper. During meal times the staff is too busy and cannot take care of such things! How humiliating!

OH NO!
MOVE 1 SPACE BACKWARD.
Pick up another card, and try harder.

COMPENDIUM: A 1.1.1.

Good fairy cards

41

LOOK AT THAT!
The Good Fairy prepared the table with a wonderful table cloth, flowers and napkins of your favourite color.
So beautiful.

GREAT!
MOVE 4 SPACES FORWARD

COMPENDIUM: A 1.2.2.

Evil fairy cards

96

The Evil Fairy was around, calling the residents grandma or granddad, and making fun of their disabilities.
How dreadful!

OH NO!
MOVE 1 SPACE BACKWARD.
Pick up another card, and try harder.

COMPENDIUM: D 3.2.2.

Professional care givers cards

111

AWESOME!

Your reminiscence therapy group session and review of personal photos has brought the group members closer together. Well done!

Keep up the good work!

BUILDING A NEW NURSING HOME

Your team has been called to advise an architect who is in charge of building a new nursing home. Please make a list of all the features the nursing home should include. Think of everything that adds value to the life of the residents, such as: a garden, endless corridors, shops, etc. Be creative and think of everything the residents need to socialize, to make friends, for recreational activities, for private meetings, for prayer, etc. Include barrier-free accessibility, colour schemes, etc.

- The team who comes up with the most features or options wins the contest and is allowed to MOVE 3 SPACES FORWARD.
- The other team MOVES 1 SPACE FORWARD.

COMPENDIUM: P 2.1.
